

TABLE 2126

DESIGNER: JOSEF FRANK, 1951

Grand design in a small table. Here, Josef Frank used turned spindles and playfully allowed spheres to become a decorative element reminiscent of a classic baroque table. Table 2126 is unusually small, measuring just under 40 centimetres in height. It was designed by Josef Frank for Svenskt Tenn in 1951 and was part of the furnishings in Josef and Anna Frank's home on Rindögatan in Stockholm. The table was exhibited in Josef Frank's Memorial Exhibition at the National Museum in 1968 but has not been in production since then. Now, it is relaunched in conjunction with Svenskt Tenn's 100th anniversary in 2024.

CARE INSTRUCTIONS

Svenskt Tenn's furniture is made from wood that is varnished or coated. Clean with a soft cloth dampened with mild dish detergent or soapy water. Dry with a soft cloth. Do not expose the furniture to prolonged humidity or direct heat or use polish, oil or abrasive cleaners on the furniture.

At first, don't place objects such as vases, books and coasters on the table since this can lead to changes in colour of the surface. After that, avoid allowing objects to remain too long in the same place on the table since this might lead to darkening of the wood. In addition, avoid exposing the furniture to major changes in temperature and humidity.

Contact a furniture restorer if the coating or wood gets damaged, as it can get worse if not tended to.
